DISCOVER SUSTAINABILITY

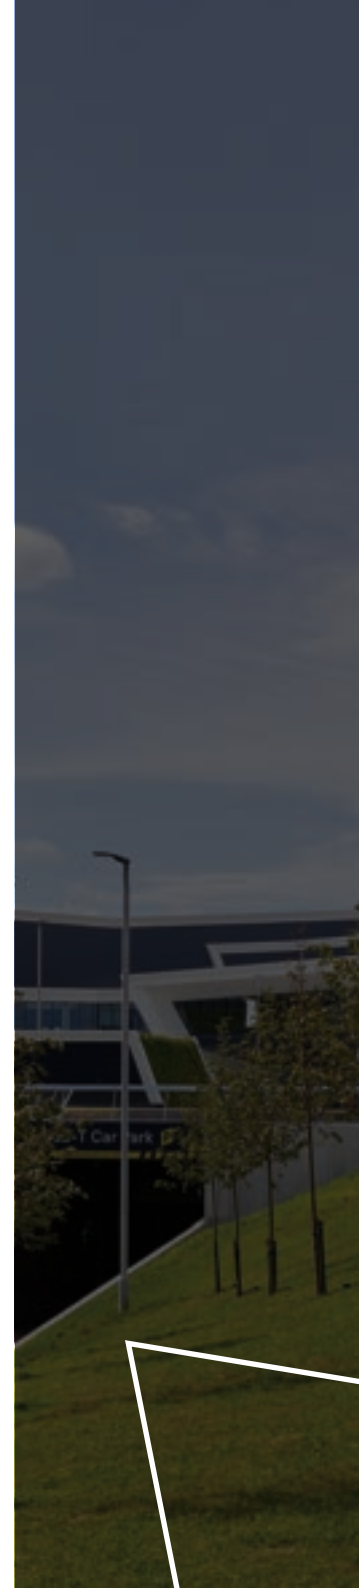

We produce our own energy from a combination of food and agricultural waste from the venue and surrounding areas, making us the most sustainable event venue in the UK.

Waste is processed in an anaerobic digestion plant, and the gases produced are transferred to the hydrogen fuel cell plant. The combination of these, in turn, produce hydrogen as a by-product which provides all the heating, cooling and power for P&J Live and the two on-site hotels - a continuous loop that guarantees a bright future.

Our commitment to sustainability is supported by our creative solutions, helping to minimise the overall carbon footprint of your event. From creative food packaging and sourcing, to digital signage and recycling, these are just some of the ways we can help deliver a sustainable event. We not only care about helping your event whilst at the venue, we will also work with key partners in the destination to ensure the overall event is being delivered to a high sustainable standard.

On-site we have 7KM of walkways, and large open green spaces, where over 29,000 trees and shrubs are planted, providing a relaxed breakout space for your delegates to enjoy.

Aberdeen showcases the very best of North-East Scotland. Built from silver granite that sparkles in the sunshine, Aberdeen is a city that charms and captivates.

A city of strength and endurance; a city that reflects the ancient rock that in many ways makes it so memorable. But alongside the timeless beauty, Scotland's third largest city also provides a warm embrace. Hospitality comes naturally to Aberdeen – and the Aberdonian.

A compact city with independent shops, cafés, restaurants and bars nestled alongside well known brands, including Aberdeen's very own BrewDog, with it's brewery only a short drive out of the city centre. The vibrant culture of art galleries, museums, city centre parks and beaches, our city is brilliantly equipped to meet conference demand and offers something truly memorable for visitors and delegates.

The North-east is home to 55 golf courses including some of the most respected in the world. No other corner of the world offers breathtaking castles, distilleries and historical sites at every turn. A choice of destination for the British Royal Family with their Scottish residence on Balmoral Estate - the jewel in the crown of Royal Deeside.

Providing the perfect balance of countryside views and history to vibrant city culture and art, Aberdeen and Aberdeenshire is the reason why we are the destination of choice for event organisers.
