About the show

The premise of the show is 'Meet-The-Maker' so the focus is all on the craft distillers exhibiting in the show. With over 30 to choose from the attendees will be spoilt for choice, with everything from Gin, rum, vodka and more they will be sure to find something they like. Exhibitors will be sampling their spirits along with selling full-sized gin and tonics, cocktails, bottles and merchandise.

Be kind

Please act responsibly, and be considerate to other visitors, giving them time and space where possible to move around the venue, and understand they may have different requirements to yours.

Most importantly

We really hope you enjoy the show and we are very much looking forward to seeing you back at P&J Live again soon.
